Bassist Steve Harris says, "We're really excited to be bringing THE FUTURE PAST TOUR back to Canada and the United States next year. We know from the reaction of our fans at Power Trip and the shows we played in Canada recently that they really enjoyed hearing new songs from both Senjutsu and Somewhere In Time, and we've really enjoyed playing them! So it's going to be a great experience for us to visit many other cities across North America and bring this new show to those fans who've waited patiently to see it. See you all in 2024!"

Manager Rod Smallwood comments, "THE FUTURE PAST TOUR is one of the most exciting tours we've ever done and to be performing both brand new material and songs that haven't been played for many years with a mix of fan favourites has been a great experience for both the fans and the band. The energy has been incredible and we can't wait to continue bringing this amazing and innovative show to fans around the world next year."

THE FUTURE PAST TOUR, which includes songs from both IRON MAIDEN's most recent studio album Senjutsu as well as 1986's seminal album Somewhere In Time, alongside other fan favorites, played to over 750,000 fans at more than 30 sold-out shows across Europe in the summer of 2023. The band also performed in Edmonton, Calgary and Vancouver alongside their highly praised appearance at California's Power Trip Festival this October which had Consequence stating "...Iron Maiden set the bar high at Power Trip" and The Desert Sun saying "Iron Maiden didn't disappoint and delivered a hard-hitting performance to open the festival on a high note." Featuring one of the most spectacular stage productions of the band's career, it has received rave reviews in every city and country that IRON MAIDEN visited.
