COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT:

- MGM Grand Detroit is committed to strengthening the communities where it operates and where team members live. Through "Touching Communities, Touching Lives™" initiatives, MGM Grand Detroit supports the following key community investment areas:
 - Education (Schoolcraft College, Winning Futures, Coleman A. Young Foundation)
 - Youth Development (Playworks)
 - Arts & Culture (Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Charles Wright Museum of African American History, Michigan Opera Theater, University Cultural Center Association etc.)
 - Diversity (Arab American & Chaldean Council, LASED, St. Patrick's Senior Center, Motor City Pride)
 - Community Development (Fall Coat Harvest, Gleaners Community Food Bank, The Greening of Detroit, Forgotten Harvest)
 - Sustainability (The Greening of Detroit, Detroit Eastern Market, Black Pearl)
 - MGM Grand Detroit has become a major part of the community and has contributed substantially to civic and community organizations that enhance the lives of those who live in Detroit.
 - From food drives to community partnerships with organizations such as Forgotten Harvest and Gleaners Community Food Bank, MGM Grand Detroit has contributed more than 1,000,000 meals to children and families throughout southeast Michigan.
 - The impact of MGM Grand Detroit's community partnerships is multiplied, with help from team member volunteer activities and the MGM Resorts Foundation.
 - MGM Grand Detroit team members regularly volunteer their time for worthy causes across the community. This volunteerism has included the efforts of nearly 1,900 team members that have given nearly 28,000 hours of their time during a seven-year period.

- A perfect complement to our team member's volunteer efforts is the MGM Resorts Foundation. Since 2013, team members have contributed more than $580,000 to deserving metro Detroit-area community organizations.
- And since 2009, an additional $40,000 has been contributed to colleagues in need through an emergency grant fund supported by MGM Grand Detroit team members.
- MGM Grand Detroit's community outreach across the region also includes signature initiatives like the Fall Coat Harvest—which distributed 2,400 winter coats to students at 30 Metro Detroit schools and agencies during the fourth quarter of 2018 alone—and has donated more than 40,000 coats, hats and gloves to children within the tri-county region since its inception.

SUSTAINABILITY:

- In partnership with Black Pearl, the MGM Grand Detroit Plum Street Market Garden (pending name change) functions as an educational resource gardeners and farmers, a gathering place for a diverse regional audience seeking opportunities to plug into Detroit's thriving urban agriculture movement and a productive urban farm producing tons of fruits and vegetables for local families and restaurants.
- MGM Resorts launched MY Green Advantage in 2013 to engage and educate employees on the importance of sustainability.
 - MY Green Advantage is an online, social application that challenges and encourages our employees to make smarter choices and lifestyle changes with environmental responsibility in mind.
 - By completing actions, which are designed to help build awareness about the impact of their choices, employees earn badges and accumulating points.
 - Employees are able to drive competition and Companywide challenges to foster sustainable lifestyles and habits.
- In 2015, MGM Grand Detroit launched a full-fledged onsite recycling program to reduce the property's waste.
 - Receptacles were placed throughout the property to prompt guests and team members to recycle, and a dedicated team was established to sort through all waste in the recycling center. Once sorted, the cardboard, glass, aluminum and compost are properly stored and transported to recycling facilities by the truckload.
