Christmas in the Air is a first-class family 'snow globe come to life' experience, featuring a cast of awe-inspiring synchronized high-kicking Rockette-style dancers, along with world-class singers and actors. With special appearances by Santa and several of his well-known holiday pals, Christmas in the Air is a one-of-a-kind holiday greeting card production, delivered to your front door!

Christmas in the Air is a first-class Broadway-style song and dance variety production wrapped up in a warm, fun, and feel-good holiday storyline told by two of Santa's favorite elves. The show delivers the perfect mix of classic holiday melodies and modern-day favorites, highlighting a dazzling group of precision dancers, that you must see to believe. With a world-class supporting cast, in addition to wonderful costuming, choreography and amusing audience participation segments, Christmas in the Air truly delivers a little something for every family member to enjoy.

Christmas in the Air is the brainchild of well-known international writer, producer and director, Jeb K. Rand, president and executive producer of Las Vegas', Rand Enterprises & Productions. Rand's entertainment career spans over 30 years, first as a US figure skating team member, and then as a lead performer with renowned productions around the globe. Since 1996, Rand has created, directed and produced acclaimed shows, from Off-Broadway to productions in 18 different countries around the world. He spent eight years in NYC at Radio City Music Hall with the Radio City Christmas Spectacular, starring the Rockettes.

Rand has assembled a second-to-none production team for Christmas in the Air, with more than 60 years of combined experience working with Radio City and the Rockette shows. He has tapped New York City based choreographer, and veteran Radio City Rockette, Ann Cooley, to be the show's lead choreographer. In addition to performing with the world-famous troupe for over a decade, Cooley has crafted content and choreography for Radio City Productions, Madison Square Garden Productions and a multitude of commercial musical theater productions, plus national and international tours worldwide. All of Rand's productions include top-tier talent, award winning designers and an awe-inspiring creative staff.
