MGM National Harbor Celebrates Landmark Eighth Year

NATIONAL HARBOR, Md., (December 12, 2024) – MGM National Harbor, the DMV's first fully-integrated resort experience, is celebrating the completion of its eighth year in business and is reaffirming its commitment to making a difference in the lives of its employees, guests and communities through job creation, workforce development and support for community organizations and local non-profits.

"We have always been focused on positively impacting the lives of our neighbors, team members and guests and it is remarkable to reflect on the past eight years and the people who have been part of our journey," said Melonie Johnson, MGM National Harbor President & COO. "I couldn't be prouder of the MGM National Harbor family who have grown with us and now have new skills, new opportunities for advancement and a promising career path ahead."

Highlights of MGM National Harbor's eight-year achievements include:

- 3,200+ current MGM National Harbor employees
- 731 day-one employees
- $7 million+ in financial and in-kind support to local non-profits
- $214 million+ spent with minority-owned businesse
- 30,000 hours+ volunteering in the community
