Since the second half of 2024, Jorge Medina and Josi Cuén have joined their talents to create “Juntos,” a unique show featuring more than 40 musicians on stage. For over three hours, fans experience an emotional journey through timeless hits that have become the soundtrack of countless lives, uniting generations through the power of Regional Mexican music.

The result of this experience has been undeniable: 45 sold-out shows in 38 cities across Mexico. In Guadalajara, tickets for the first date sold out in under two hours, and a second date sold out in only 15 minutes. The May and recently announced October dates are already sold out at Mexico City’s Plaza de Toros.

The duo has headlined Mexico’s most traditional palenques, such as León and Aguascalientes, with three consecutive nights, an achievement previously reached by only a few artists, including Vicente and Alejandro Fernández. More than 400,000 people have attended “Juntos” in only eight months, cementing its status as a must-see show.

With all these achievements, Jorge Medina and Josi Cuén could not think of anything else but to go beyond borders and bring “Juntos” to the United States with 21 performances.

This is just the beginning of “Juntos,” a tour Jorge Medina and Josi Cuén reinvent each night, and this first international leg will be no exception. “Así o más claro…Y que critiquen” – because Jorge and Josi have one main goal: to keep bringing their music to every corner, showcase their talent, and continue conquering hearts.
