A Saucy Affair: The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas Teases Naughty Patty's Arrival This Summer

New Block 16 Urban Food Hall Concept to Turn Up the Heat – One Juicy Smash at a Time

LAS VEGAS (March 25, 2025) – Naughty Patty's, a sizzling fast casual burger concept created by The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas, will begin its affair with The Strip in late summer 2025 as a new addition to Block 16 Urban Food Hall. Designed to tempt, tease and satisfy with just the right amount of mischief, Naughty Patty's will deliver crave-worthy classics with a saucy spin that will leave Las Vegas visitors and locals begging for more.

"Naughty Patty's is a passion project from The Cosmopolitan," said Sean Lanni, President and COO of The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas. "The concept, the character, the dynamic flavors – everything about this place creates a tantalizing experience that complements our resort's unique voice and vibrant vibe."

The Menu

At Naughty Patty's, food won't be just a meal, but a cheeky adventure developed to hit all the right spots. Curated by The Cosmopolitan's Executive Chef Mark Crane, the menu takes the retro burger joint on fearless detours to turn a satisfied craving into an unforgettable memory.

Signature Smash Burgers, made from a blend of ground chuck and brisket, are perfectly seared with a variety of bold fixings. Golden, crispy fries come hot and ready, with an optional "Kitchen Sink" seasoning to add a bold, savory twist that will have guests coming back for more.

For those who crave indulgence in every form, Naughty Patty's will offer thick Concretes loaded with sinful toppings, such as the classic Oreo and nostalgic Strawberry Shortcake, plus boozy cocktails and beer pairings to complement every bite.

The Vibes

An irresistible extension of The Cosmopolitan's Block 16 Urban Food Hall, this lively spot will keep the energy high, and the cravings satisfied. At the heart of it all is Patty – the mischievous namesake of Naughty Patty's who is always stirring up excitement and keeping things deliciously fun.
