LAS VEGAS (April 23, 2025) – Dive In Movies, the original Las Vegas Strip poolside movie experience, returns every Monday this summer beginning May 19 at The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas. Guests of all ages are invited to enjoy cult classics and blockbuster hits on the resort's 65-foot digital marquee. Set against the dazzling backdrop of the Las Vegas skyline at the Boulevard Pool, this unique cinematic experience blends the laid-back vibe of a Las Vegas pool with the thrill of the big screen, making for the ultimate night under the stars.

This season, for the first time, Dive In Movies is introducing a series of themed nights designed for an unforgettable cinematic experience. Select screenings - including Wicked, Top Gun: Maverick, Shrek, Elf and Good Burger - will feature themed cocktails, curated culinary offerings and interactive elements inspired by the evening's film. As part of a special Independence Day celebration, Top Gun: Maverick will screen on Friday, July 4, with all-you-can-drink packages available for purchase. Additional information on the themed nights will be available on The Cosmopolitan's website.

Guests of Dive In Movies can kick back with a selection of craft cocktails like The French Caribbean, a hand-shaken mango piña colada served with fresh sugarcane rum, or the Frozen Cosmopolitan, made with Mandarin vodka, orange liqueur and white cranberry. A tempting variety of poolside bites will be available, including classic cheese or pepperoni pizza from a hidden favorite at the resort; Mini Smash Burgers stacked with cheddar, pickles and special sauce on a potato roll; and of course, movie-theater buttered popcorn. For those looking to elevate their evening, daybeds and cabanas are available for reservation, offering premium comfort and amenities.

The 2025 Dive In Movies lineup includes:
