MGM Resorts Newsroom

The Party at Superfrico Opens July 10

The most sought after table in Las Vegas now on sale

LAS VEGAS (April 30, 2025) — Spiegelworld is hosting THE PARTY, and you're officially invited. A two-hour escapade into the beating heart of Vegas nightlife, THE PARTY at Superfrico is curated exclusively for The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas and opens the door to the most outrageous, intimate, and unforgettable night out the city has to offer. Is it dinner and a show? Maybe. But not as you know it. It's a celebration of everything - birthdays, weddings, divorces, or just the thrill of being alive. Whatever your reason, THE PARTY is where it all happens.

For assets, click here

Superfrico is already hailed as no ordinary restaurant. THE PARTY goes even deeper inside, five nights a week, beginning July 10, in the brand-new Blue Room - a lush, boutique showroom and dining hideaway that can only be described as "Superfrico Royale." The room showcases the artwork of Mark Ogge, Spiegelworld's artist of record, and will feature his Circus Automaton - a specially commissioned, mechanical theatre which is a joy to witness. This is an intimate experience drenched in one-of-a-kind artistry, designed to dazzle from floor to ceiling, plate to curtain.

"I want this to be fun," said Spiegelworld's Impresario Extraordinaire Ross Mollison. "This is what an insiders' party at Spiegelworld looks like. There are only 50 seats a night. That's 25 doubles. Down to 24 after you count my table. Oh, and I usually dine with at least 6 others, so now there's only 21 tables left."

Guests will indulge in a chef's choice, three-course menu, artfully created by Superfrico's Executive Chef Mitch Emge to complement the night's live entertainment. Commanding that portion is none other than Laurie Hagen, a fiery force of nature with a glitter-stained résumé from Berlin's backrooms to London's cabaret underground. Laurie will serve up sass, style, and surreal mischief as she emcees a rotating roster of Spiegelworld's most sensational performers, hand-picked for THE PARTY. No two nights are alike - every show is a fever dream of burlesque, comedy, and peak Spiegelworld unusualists.

With just one seating per night, five nights a week, THE PARTY at Superfrico is Spiegelworld's most decadent house party, where the experience is as rare as it is wild.

Beginning July 10, Spiegelworld will host THE PARTY at Superfrico Wednesday to Sunday at 7 p.m. The two-hour experience is $150 per person, with a delicious, three-course menu and surprising live performances included. Reservations are scarce and can be booked at Spiegelworld.com/Superfrico/TheParty.

###

About Spiegelworld

Spiegelworld is the planet's premier purveyor of entertainment for savvy, seen-it-all adult audiences. Born in a century-old spiegeltent in the shadow of the Brooklyn Bridge in 2006, the company relocated to Las Vegas, NV with the 2011 Caesars Palace debut of Absinthe, ranked "the #1 greatest show in Las Vegas history" by Las Vegas Weekly. Since then, Spiegelworld's community has expanded to include 800+ organizers, agitators, dreamers, doers, insiders, outsiders and iconoclasts of every flavor, with shows in Las Vegas and Atlantic City, the introduction of the hit restaurant concept Superfrico and stewardship of the circus town, Nipton, California. For more information, visit spiegelworld.com or follow Spiegelworld on Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, TikTok, GIPHY, LinkedIn and YouTube.

Additional assets available online: Photos (1)

https://newsroom.mgmresorts.com/press-releases?item=122609