"Chef Antonia is an absolute force in and out of the kitchen," said Mina. "From winning, hosting or judging competitive TV cooking shows, to running a successful restaurant company and being a cookbook author and mother, there is nothing she can't do. I'm honored to collaborate with her and look forward to the fun we'll have in creating an incredible epicurean adventure for Bellagio guests."

Lofaso said, "I am thrilled to be the first chef to kick off this series and look forward to cooking alongside Chef Mina and his team for what is sure to be a memorable evening. Creative menu items, unique presentations, and first-class hospitality will set the tone for a truly fun and flavorful guest experience."

Additional Michael Mina Bellagio Presents: The Guest List dinner series events will be announced in the coming months.
