Clark County Declares June 16, 2025 "Tournament of Kings Day"

LAS VEGAS, NV (June 17, 2025)— Hear ye, hear ye! Last night, Tournament of Kings, the longest-running dinner and show on the Las Vegas Strip, honored 35 years of performing at Excalibur with a feast fit for royalty. The celebration welcomed media, longtime cast and crew members, and guests for a night filled with exciting jousting, a hearty feast and roaring cheers.

The performance concluded with a coronation ceremony including special remarks by Mike Neubecker, President & COO of Excalibur, who praised the show's enduring legacy and the team that brings the medieval spectacle to life night after night. Following, Clark County Commissioner Michael Naft presented the production with an official proclamation declaring June 16, 2025, as "Tournament of Kings Day" in Clark County to commemorate this milestone. The show's producer Patrick Jackson accepted the proclamation on behalf of Royal Productions and expressed the team's gratitude for the opportunity to entertain millions around the world daily.

Due to the decades of success the show has had, Tournament of Kings signed a multi-year extension at Excalibur, ensuring the production continues to entertain millions of guests from around the world for many years to come. King Arthur and his Kingdom invites guests to join the action Thursday – Monday at 6 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. All who visit Tournament of Kings Arena will be transported into medieval times and will be immersed in kings jousting and rowdy chanting, while devouring a hearty feast the same way the medieval Kingdom enjoys – with only your hands as utensils.

This summer, Tournament of Kings has limited-time offers on shows from now through September. Guests can receive two complimentary tickets when booking a room at select MGM Resorts hotels and can enjoy up to 40% off select show dates. Tickets can be purchased at any MGM Resorts box office or online at mgmresorts.com.
