LAS VEGAS (July 9, 2025)– Multi-Platinum Curb Records recording artist and songwriter Lee Brice will join the lineup of the Las Vegas Songwriters Festival presented by MGM Resorts International and Entersong Entertainment taking place August 21-24. Owing more than 10 billion career streams, the country music superstar will kick off the four-day event Thursday, Aug. 21 at House of Blues Las Vegas inside Mandalay Bay Resort and Casino.

Fans will have the opportunity to experience Lee Brice: Stories and Songs as the ACM and CMA Award winner performs hits from his catalog – which includes nine No. 1 singles – alongside some of the songwriters who helped bring those songs to life including Billy Montana, Bobby Pinson, Brian Davis, Jerrod Niemann, Justin Wilson, Lance Miller, Liz Rose, Phil Barton and Rob Hatch.

Single-day tickets are now available for Thursday, Aug. 21, Friday, Aug. 22 and Saturday, Aug. 23, along with general admission and VIP tickets for the full four-day experience. Tickets starting at $69, not including applicable fees and taxes, may be purchased via LVSF Single Day Tickets.

Also announced, award-winning broadcaster Storme Warren, presented in 2020 with the BMI Ambassador Award in recognition of his continuous support and promotion of Nashville’s vibrant songwriting community, will host multiple Q&A sessions at the House of Blues B-Side venue at Mandalay Bay. Presented by event partner The Bluebird Cafe, Warren will be joined by writers Dean Dillion (“The Chair,” “Tennessee Whiskey”), Paul Overstreet (“Forever and Ever, Amen,” “When You Say Nothing At All”), Victoria Shaw (“The River,” “She’s Every Woman”) and Liz Rose (“Teardrops on My Guitar,” “It All Comes Out In The Wash”).

Featuring more than 300 No. 1 songs represented through 100 live performances across five stages at Mandalay Bay, the Las Vegas Songwriters Festival will offer fans an intimate and immersive experience to hear the stories behind the songs – told directly by the writers themselves. Performances are scheduled to begin daily at 11 a.m. with select sets to include unique collaborations, one-of-a-kind songwriter pairings, Q&A sessions, and more.

Hosted by chart-topping songwriter Matt Warren (Darius Rucker, Gary Allan), the festival was founded by Entersong’s Rob Hatch and Mike Every in partnership with MGM Resorts.

Fans can purchase a room and ticket package at LVSF at Mandalay Bay, making the Las Vegas Songwriters Festival’s first year an ideal event and vacation getaway. For more event information, visit LVSF.

About Lee Brice

When Curb Records recording artist Lee Brice isn't selling out arenas, writing and recording songs, or building new brands like Dulce Vida Tequila and Loud Lemon, you'll find the family man with his wife Sara, two young boys and daughter. With more than 10 billion career streams, Brice continues to enjoy massive success at country radio, digital streaming services and, on the road. He has reached the No. 1 spot at Country Radio with Platinum-selling "Memory I Don't Mess With," which consecutively follows three prior No. 1's: ASCAP's 2021 Country Song of the Year and 3x Platinum track "One of Them Girls," "I Hope You're Happy Now" with Carly Pearce, and the 4x Platinum hit "Rumor," nominated in the category Single of The Year at the 55th Annual ACM Awards. One of the most played country artists of all time on Pandora, he was the second country artist behind Keith Urban to receive the Pandora Billionaire plaque. Brice also is a GRAMMY nominee, a CMA and ACM award winner, and he's taken nine radio singles to No. 1: "A Woman Like You," "Hard to Love," "I Drive Your Truck," "I Don't Dance," "Drinking Class," "Rumor," "I Hope You're Happy Now," "One of Them Girls" and "Memory I Don't Mess With." Garth Brooks, Jason Aldean, Kenny Chesney and others have recorded his songs, and he's performed on numerous TV shows including NBC's Today and The Voice, ABC's The Bachelor and FOX's Miss USA 2018. Brice performed as part of the Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song honoring Garth Brooks (PBS March 2020). At the 54th Annual CMA Awards, he took home the prize for Musical Event of the Year for his song with Carly Pearce, "I Hope You're Happy Now." At the 56th ACM Awards, "I Hope You're Happy Now" won Single of the Year and Music Event of the Year; he and Pearce also performed the song live. Brice's album, Hey World, has been certified as Platinum and features several multi-Platinum selling hits. He kicked off 2024 with an intimate acoustic tour, the Me & My Guitar Tour, and last Spring he released his latest radio single, "Drinkin' Buddies" with Nate Smith and Hailey Whitters. The single was followed by the nostalgic summertime track, "Summer of Us." At the beginning of the year, Brice announced the return of his acoustic tour, the You, Me & My Guitar Tour and released his radio single, "Cry." Most recently, Brice teamed up with some of his legendary Country friends – Jamey Johnson, Randy Houser, Jerrod Niemann, Dallas Davidson and Rob Hatch (aka The Traler Park) – for "Said No Country Boy Ever," which was released last week.

About Bluebird Café (Nashville, Tenn)

Nashville's Bluebird Café is a small but mighty venue where up-and-coming songwriters and artists build their careers and rise to fame. Over the past 43 years, the tiny room has evolved into one of the most significant music venues in the world, a room where all songwriters are welcomed and supported, from novice to established hit-makers. Artists such as Kathy Mattea, Garth Brooks, Faith Hill and Taylor Swift have had career moments along with countless hit songwriters whose music is represented on a wide range of charts. Over 80,000 people visit the venue annually; many of them because of seeing the Bluebird on television, in news pieces, The Foo Fighters' documentary, Sonic Highways, the feature film, The Thing Called Love, or on the ABC hit drama, Nashville. The venue's history was featured in the 2019 documentary, BLUEBIRD, available on streaming channels including iTunes and Amazon. For more information bluebirdcafe.com.
