USA Today Readers Honor Beau Rivage In Annual Voting

MGM Resorts' Mississippi property named Top 10 in casinos outside Las Vegas; Top 5 in slots and hotel

BILOXI, MISS. (Sept. 8, 2025) – USA Today readers were asked to cast their votes for the best casinos outside of Las Vegas, and they say Beau Rivage is among the best in multiple categories.

“Each month, Beau Rivage welcomes thousands of guests from all 50 states, and more than 100,000 visitors fly in from 95 cities each year on our MGMAir program, making Beau Rivage a national resort destination,” said Beau Rivage President and COO Brandon Dardeau. “This recognition celebrates our ongoing commitment to the guest experience and what draws visitors from across the country to Beau Rivage.”

The annual 10Best voting announced this week that Beau Rivage Resort & Casino is in the Top 10 for best casino outside Las Vegas. The MGM Resorts property came in at No. 8, moving up a notch from 2024.

Beau Rivage also scored two Top 5 rankings: No. 5 in best casino for slots and No. 5 in best casino hotel.

Coastal Mississippi’s crown jewel recently completed $130 million in capital projects, including the opening of Coraline’s, the highly anticipated Gulf-to-table seafood restaurant offering waterfront views, and enhancements to the casino floor, 1,727-room hotel tower, and Tom Fazio-designed golf course, Fallen Oak.

The 85,000 square foot casino features 1,200 slot machines, including the region’s first Buffalo Zone with 50 Aristocrat Gaming favorites in a smoke-free room. From traditional slots to the newest gaming tech, Beau Rivage offers everything from penny play to a High Limit Room.

USA Today editors said “Beau Rivage Resort & Casino in Biloxi, Mississippi, is a luxury waterfront destination on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. When guests take a break from 24-hour gaming in the casino, they can retire to the tropical pool, a number of on-site restaurants, or rooms and suites that feature panoramic views, plus state-of-the-art technology.”
