Alejandro Fernández Bringing De Rey A Rey Tour to MGM Grand Garden Arena September 15, 2026

General On Sale Begins Friday, Nov. 21 at 10 A.M. PT at AXS.com

LAS VEGAS (Nov. 17, 2025) – Mexican music icon Alejandro Fernández has announced an extension of his acclaimed De Rey A Rey Tour, adding a new run of dates for 2026. The tour will see his 23rd year celebrating Fiestas Patrias in Las Vegas at the MGM Grand Garden Arena Tuesday, Sept. 15, 2026, featuring Alejandro's daughter Camila Fernández as the opening act.

Tickets go on sale beginning Friday, Nov. 21 at 10 a.m. PT at AXS.com.

Produced by Live Nation, the De Rey A Rey Tour is a powerful and deeply personal tribute to Fernández's legendary father, Vicente Fernández. Through timeless ranchera classics and emotional performances, the show celebrates a musical legacy that continues to unite generations. The 2026 leg follows a highly successful 2025 run, which included performances in 26 cities across the U.S. and Canada.

Recognized for both his artistry and philanthropy, Fernández was honored by the U.S. Congress in 2023 for his four decades of contributions to Mexican music, Latino culture, and global humanitarian efforts. Earlier this year, he became one of the first Latin artists to donate to the Los Angeles Fire Department in response to the devastating wildfires that swept the region—a place he proudly calls his second home.

Through his music and ongoing charitable work, Alejandro Fernández continues to uplift communities and celebrate the rich cultural legacy of Mexico around the world.

About Alejandro Fernández
Alejandro Fernández son of legendary Vicente Fernandez, first stepped foot on-stage at the age of five, when he turned 22, he released his first album and began his professional career. His versatility has allowed him to master both pop and Regional Mexican charts and has led him to collaborate with more than 35 international artists, including Maná, Juan Gabriel, Julio Iglesias, Christina Aguilera, Beyoncé, Plácido Domingo, Rod Stewart, and Alejandro Sanz.

Alejandro is the first artist to achieve #1 album sales in four consecutive decades (1990s, 2000s, 2010s, and 2020s). Alejandro has twelve #1s on Latin Airplay Billboard's chart, the most chart topping songs by a regional Mexican artist. He continues to dominate the digital space with 1.2 billion streams annually on Spotify, a spot in Pandora's Billionaires Program, and over 8 billion YouTube views, cementing his global reach and enduring popularity.

Similarly, El Potrillo has earned 4 Latin GRAMMYs, including "Best Ranchero/Mariachi Album" for his seventeenth album 'Te Llevo en la Sangre' (2024). He also has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, holds a spot on Billboard's Hall of Fame, received the "Icon Award" at the Latin AMAS, and the "Excellence Award" at Premio Lo Nuestro and Premios Soberano, among other honors recognizing his contributions to music.

Alejandro has been touring for over 30 years, performing live for fans in 18 countries across the U.S., Latin America, and Europe. In 2003, he began the annual Fiestas Patrias tradition in Las Vegas, and he is now the top-selling solo artist in the city's history, with 23 consecutive years of performances. In his home country of Mexico, he broke records at the iconic Plaza de Toros La México, becoming the first and only artist to sell out four concerts there, with over 160,000 total attendees. He has also been invited four times (2001, 2006, 2015, and 2023) to the prestigious Viña del Mar Festival, the largest Latin music event in the world
