- A 25-foot-long toy train and caboose
- A 25 ft Christmas spire ornament
- A 16-foot-tall rocking horse
- Nine oversized ornaments hanging overhead, with each featuring 10,000 small ornaments within
- Eight red bows with oversized ornaments
- Five seven-foot-tall gold stars hanging from the ceiling
- Six large white Christmas trees ranging from 16 to 25 feet tall
- Two Christmas boxes ranging from 5 feet tall to 7 feet tall

Veuve Clicquot In the Snow

Beginning on Friday, December 5, from 5–10 p.m., Veuve Clicquot will debut its limited-time holiday pop-up bar, In the Snow, located in The District at MGM National Harbor. The space will be transformed as a charming after-ski retreat with snowy accents, cozy winter vibes and nostalgic ski-inspired décor. Guests can escape the cold in this picturesque setting while enjoying Veuve Clicquot Yellow Label and Rosé, perfectly paired with a holiday charcuterie. The picturesque experience continues Fridays and Saturdays from December 5–26, open from 5–10 p.m.

Cirque Dreams Holidaze

In addition to whimsical décor and holiday treats, Cirque Dreams Holidaze returns to MGM National Harbor for three shows on December 19 and 20. The family holiday spectacular features a world-renowned cast of performers who light up the stage, wrapping a Broadway-style musical infused with contemporary circus artistry into the ultimate holiday gift for the entire family.
