

NoMad Las Vegas Set to Rebrand into The Reserve at Park MGM

THE RESERVE

♦ AT PARK MGM ♦

LAS VEGAS (December 1) — MGM Resorts International announced today that NoMad Las Vegas will begin to transition into The Reserve at Park MGM, with the full rebrand taking effect on December 17.

Consisting of 293 rooms and suites, The Reserve at Park MGM will continue to deliver the elevated and sophisticated experience guests have come to know and love. As part of the transition, several NoMad venues will unveil refreshed identities: NoMad Pool will be renamed The Terrace Pool; NoMad Library will become The Library; and NoMad Bar will be called The Reserve Bar.

In early 2026, it is anticipated The Reserve at Park MGM will join Marriott Bonvoy's vibrant Autograph Collection as part of MGM Resorts' long-term strategic licensing partnership with Marriott International that created MGM Collection with Marriott Bonvoy. At that time, Marriott Bonvoy members will be able to book stays through Marriott.com and earn and redeem points at The Reserve at Park MGM.

With the addition of The Reserve at Park MGM, MGM Collection with Marriott Bonvoy will encompass 13 destinations on the Las Vegas Strip, including Bellagio, a Luxury Collection Resort & Casino; ARIA Resort & Casino, Autograph Collection; The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas, Autograph Collection; and Mandalay Bay Resort & Casino, MGM Collection, among others.

MGM Rewards members and guests may make reservations at The Reserve at Park MGM via mgmresorts.com and the MGM Rewards app starting December 17.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements in this release that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements, within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended, and involve risks and/or uncertainties, including those described in the Company's public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "believes," "expects," "could," "may," "will," "should," "seeks," "likely," "intends," "plans," "pro forma," "projects," "estimates" or "anticipates" or the negative of these words and phrases or similar words or phrases that are predictions of or indicate future events or trends and that do not relate solely to historical matters. The Company has based forward-looking statements on management's current expectations and assumptions and not on historical facts. Examples of these statements include, but are not limited to, the Company's expectations regarding the rebrand and transition to The Reserve at Park MGM. Forward-looking statements depend on assumptions, data or methods that may be incorrect or imprecise, and the Company may not be able to realize them. The Company does not guarantee that the transition and rebrand or other events described herein will happen as described (or that they will happen at all). These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Among the important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in such forward-looking statements include risks related to the economic and market conditions in the markets in which the Company operates and competition with other destination travel locations throughout the United States and the world, the design, timing and costs of conversion or expansion projects, risks relating to domestic and international operations, permits, licenses, financings, approvals and other contingencies in connection with growth in new or existing jurisdictions and additional risks and uncertainties described in the Company's Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and Form 8-K reports (including all amendments to those reports). In providing forward-looking statements, the Company is not undertaking any duty or obligation to update these statements publicly as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law. If the Company updates one or more forward-looking statements, no inference should be drawn that it will make additional updates with respect to those other forward-looking statements.
