NATIONAL HARBOR, Md. (February 5, 2026) – Today, MGM National Harbor celebrated the grand opening of its newly expanded High Limit gaming area, a milestone evolution in luxury and sophistication for the resort’s gaming experience. The festivities included a ribbon cutting, remarks from MGM National Harbor’s Vice President of Casino Operations, Alexander Alvarado, and a traditional lion dance blessing to usher in prosperity and good fortune ahead of Lunar New Year.

“The new High Limit Gaming area marks an exciting evolution of the MGM National Harbor casino floor and underscores our continued commitment to excellence, innovation, and elevated guest experiences,” said Alexander Alvarado, Vice President of Casino Operations at MGM National Harbor. “As we approach our 10th anniversary, this investment reflects how we’re building on a decade of success while continuing to deliver best-in-class experiences.”

The expanded High Limit gaming area sets a new benchmark for premium gaming environments with the following additions:

- 4,000 sq. ft. of new gaming area added for a total of 14,000 sq. ft.
- A new slot room with approximately 110 slot machines (previously housed 55)
- 19 table games and a new flex room for up to 8 additional tables
- Completely renovated space with new wall coverings, carpet, crystal ceiling fixtures and entry chandelier

Design & Construction Highlights
