"Ca$ino" is the follow-up to Keem's RIAA platinum certified, critically acclaimed debut album, "The Melodic Blue," originally released in September 2021 and "The Melodic Blue Deluxe" in 2022 — which includes the 5x platinum single "family ties" featuring Kendrick Lamar that earned Keem his first GRAMMY Award for Best Rap Performance.

About Baby Keem

Baby Keem is already revered as one of the most exciting voices in music. His RIAA certified Platinum debut studio album "The Melodic Blue," released in September 2021, was met with universal critical acclaim and praise. The 5x platinum track "family ties," featuring Kendrick Lamar, was the lead single off the project and earned Keem his first ever GRAMMY win for Best Rap Performance at the 64th GRAMMY Awards.

"The Melodic Blue" debuted at No. 5 on the Billboard 200, with 14 of the album's tracks featuring production by Keem himself. Keem joined Kendrick Lamar on his 2022 Big Steppers Tour, where he captivated audiences around the world, and fans can re-live his set live through "The Big Steppers Tour: Live From Paris" Amazon Prime livestream, which also earned a GRAMMY nomination for Best Music Film at the 2024 GRAMMY Awards.

In 2022, Keem also released "The Melodic Blue Deluxe," the deluxe edition of his GRAMMY-winning debut studio album, delivering seven new songs with features from Lil Uzi Vert, Don Toliver and PinkPantheress. In 2023, Keem went on to release "The Melodic Blue" visual, available globally on Prime Video with three additional unreleased tracks, notably marking the final chapter of "The Melodic Blue."

In 2024, Keem and Lamar reunited for the release of "The Hillbillies," earning Keem a nomination for Best Rap Performance at the 67th Annual GRAMMY Awards.
