

Cheap Trick brings Rock 'n' Roll to Beau Rivage Theatre on March 7

BILOXI, Miss. (February 2026) – Beloved everywhere for their instantly identifiable, hugely influential union of mischievous wit and maximum melodies, Cheap Trick will take the stage at Beau Rivage Resort & Casino on March 7 at 8 p.m.

The band was established almost half a century ago by Robin Zander (vocals, rhythm guitar), Rick Nielsen (lead guitar), Tom Petersson (bass guitar), and Bun E. Carlos (drums), and remains the same at its core as ever – four great guys, three great chords, and an unparalleled canon of tunes that will last an eternity, from “He’s A Whore,” “California Man” and “Dream Police” to “Surrender,” “I Want You To Want Me” and the worldwide #1 hit single, “The Flame.”

“The songs are why everybody knows Cheap Trick,” says Nielsen. “We have some good songs. ‘I Want You To Want Me’ has been around for 40 years, but people still love it. And even if you’re sick of it, it’s over in three minutes! The songs are still relevant; they still have the right words and the right emotions to move 99% of all living humans.”

Based out of Rockford, Illinois, Cheap Trick has become part of the very fiber of American music, with more than 40 international Gold and Platinum certifications, myriad awards and industry honors, featured appearances on over 20 movie soundtracks, and total record sales now well in excess of 20 million.

With their 21st studio album and a typically epic tour celebrating their 50th anniversary on the horizon, Cheap Trick is set to entertain audiences at Beau Rivage Resort & Casino on March 7. Doors open at 7 p.m., and the performance begins at 8 p.m. Ticket prices start at $45 plus tax and service charge. Call 888-566-7469 or visit beaurivage.com to purchase tickets.
