LAS VEGAS (April 29, 2026) – Long summer nights, skyline views and fan-favorite films are back as Dive In Movies returns to The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas. Beginning Monday, June 8, the resort's iconic Boulevard Pool transforms into an open-air cinema where guests can unwind as movies play across a 65-foot digital marquee set above the Las Vegas Strip.

A summer staple, Dive In Movies blends the laid-back energy of a rooftop pool escape with the excitement of a big-screen experience, creating an only-in-Vegas way to spend a Monday night under the stars. This season's lineup delivers a mix of nostalgic favorites, feel-good comedies and blockbuster hits, offering something for moviegoers of all ages.

"As the original poolside movie experience in Las Vegas, Dive In Movies has been a defining part of summer at The Cosmopolitan for more than a decade," said Mark Lefever, SVP and General Manager of The Cosmopolitan. "There's nothing quite like watching a film at the pool, four stories above the heart of the Strip – it's a setting guests come back to year after year. We look forward to welcoming everyone for another great season."
