

Beau Rivage wins 10 awards in Coast Observer's 2026 Covey Awards

BILOXI, Miss. (May 1, 2026)—The results are in for Coast Observer's “2026 Covey Awards,” which recognizes the “best of the best” on the Mississippi Gulf Coast in the casino, restaurant and entertainment industries. Each year, award winners are voted on by Gulf Coast residents and visitors and the top three in each category are invited to the awards ceremony, where the winners are revealed.

This year, readers of the Coast Observer selected MGM Resorts International's Beau Rivage Resort & Casino as No. 1 on the Gulf Coast in 10 categories, including Favorite Casino and Best Hotel, which was announced in a gala ceremony on April 21.

“It's an honor for Beau Rivage to be recognized by Coast Observer readers as a market leader for dining and entertainment options,” said Beau Rivage President and COO Brandon Dardeau. “This recognition is a testament to the hard work and dedication our team has to providing an unforgettable experience to all guests.”

In addition, Beau Rivage Theatre was recognized as the venue providing the Best Concerts and the Best Shows on the Coast. With musical acts like Chicago and Melissa Etheridge, and shows like Riverdance and Shrek The Musical, as well as comedians like Jay Leno, Beau Rivage Theatre staff continue to provide entertainment that appeals to a cross-section of the community and resort guests.

BR Prime, the waterfront resort's acclaimed steakhouse, won Best Steaks on the Coast, Best Fine Dining & Culinary Cuisine on the Coast and Best Casino Restaurant on the Coast for its mouth-watering menu and contemporary sophistication that transforms an evening into a special occasion.

Jia won the award for Best Sushi on the Coast and BetMGM Sportsbook took home Favorite Casino Sportsbook on the Coast. EIGHT75 was recognized as the Favorite Casino Martini & Wine Lounge for its relaxed atmosphere and live music that makes it a go-to spot for locals and guests alike.
