

Top Things to Know This Week at MGM National Harbor – May 4

MOTHER'S DAY BRUNCH GETS A JAZZ-FILLED UPGRADE AT OSTERIA COSTA (SOLD OUT)

This Sunday, May 10 from 12-3 p.m., Osteria Costa's Mother's Day Jazz Brunch presents an elevated dining experience complemented by the smooth sounds of live jazz. With an option to enhance the experience with bottomless mimosas, the event offers a refined and inviting atmosphere to celebrate the occasion with exceptional cuisine and live entertainment. In June, Jazz Brunch will continue its usual schedule on the last Sunday of each month.

TACOS, TEQUILA AND DJS TAKE OVER DIABLO'S THIS CINCO DE MAYO

Diablo's Cantina at MGM National Harbor will come alive on May 5 with its Cinco de Mayo Party, a Casamigos-inspired celebration featuring tacos, tequila and an elevated mix of music and energy.

Guests can expect an unforgettable evening set to the sounds of top DJs spinning hip-hop, R&B, and crowd favorites, alongside premium tequila cocktails and margarita specials. The venue's vibrant atmosphere will extend to the outdoor patio, creating a festive backdrop for one of the region's most anticipated Cinco de Mayo celebrations. Designed for guests 21 and older, the experience also includes free parking and bottle service. Admission is $20 at the door. For reservations, click here.

COMPLIMENTARY TAI CHI EXPERIENCE BRINGS WELLNESS TO POTOMAC PLAZA

This past Saturday a complimentary Tai Chi event was held at the Potomac Plaza, just three days after National Tai Chi Day. Tai Chi, a gentle form of exercise that combines slow, flowing movements with deep breathing and mindfulness, offers a relaxing and approachable wellness experience. Open to the public, the event featured multiple instructor-led sessions throughout the morning. Upon check-in, guests received a welcome gift that included a T-shirt and a $25 FREEPLAY bonus. Water and light snacks were also provided, creating a comfortable and inviting atmosphere for all participants.
