"The energy has been incredible every night. Seeing these crowds sing these songs with us after all these years has been powerful. We're excited to bring The Final Frontier Tour to even more cities this fall" – Founder Neal Schon

"These songs continue to connect with people in such a meaningful way. We're grateful for the fans who've supported this music across generations" – Jonathan Cain

"The fans have been incredible. Every night feels like a celebration, and we're excited to share that experience with even more cities" – Arnel Pineda

Whether you've followed Journey since the beginning or discovered the music through a new generation, the Final Frontier Tour is a celebration of the songs, memories and moments that continue to connect audiences worldwide.

ABOUT JOURNEY:

Since forming in 1973, JOURNEY has earned 19 top 40 singles, 25 gold and platinum albums, and sold more than 100 million records worldwide. Their "Greatest Hits" album is certified 15 times-platinum, making JOURNEY one of the few bands in history to achieve diamond-certification, while "Don't Stop Believin'" has surpassed over one billion streams globally. JOURNEY was inducted into the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame in 2017 and remains one of the most successful touring rock bands in the world. Their co-headlining tour with Def Leppard ranked among the year's top global tours, selling more than million tickets and earning Billboard's prestigious "Legends Of Live" award. The band has also received a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame and was inducted into the Hollywood Bowl Hall Of Fame. Journey is additionally the subject of the acclaimed documentary "Don't Stop Believin': Everyman's Journey"; chronicling the band's remarkable resurgence following the arrival of lead vocalist Arnel Pineda, discovered by Founder, Neal Schon through YouTube.
