INTERNATIONAL®

LAS VEGAS (June 4, 2026) – MGM Resorts International (NYSE: MGM) ("MGM Resorts" or the "Company") is excited to announce the publication of its 2025 Impact Report, a comprehensive overview of the Company's commitment to corporate responsibility, community engagement, environmental stewardship and responsible business practices. This report highlights the collective achievements of MGM Resorts employees, partners and stakeholders in driving positive change across the communities where the company operates.

Highlights from the 2025 Impact Report

1. Philanthropy

- o Over 98,000 employee volunteer hours contributed in 2025.
- o More than $3.1 million awarded to local nonprofits through the MGM Resorts Foundation, with 58% employee participation.
- o 646 scholarships provided to children of employees since 2019, supporting higher education and professional development.

2. Community & Business Engagement

- o 14 Employee Network Groups and Business Resource Groups, with 28 chapters and more than 200 events in 2025.
- o The Global Business Impact Mentorship Program graduated its final cohort, totaling 150 businesses mentored across 21 states.

3. Environmental Stewardship

- o Completion of the Escape Solar and Storage Project, more than doubling solar capacity and powering up to 100% of daytime operations on the Las Vegas Strip.
- o 7 million gallons of water saved annually in employee homes through conservation initiatives.
- o 30% year-over-year reduction in landfill waste at MGM Grand.

4. Responsible Business Practices

- o Certification of over 2,000 employees as GameSense advisors, reinforcing MGM Resorts' leadership in responsible gaming.

"Our people are at the center of everything we do, driving the progress we're making in our corporate responsibility efforts," said Bill Hornbuckle, CEO & President of MGM Resorts. "This report reflects their dedication to doing what's right while helping build a more resilient future for our company and the communities we serve."

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements in this release that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements, within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended, and involve risks and/or uncertainties, including those described in the Company's public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "believes," "expects," "could," "may," "will," "should," "seeks," "likely," "intends," "plans," "pro forma," "projects," "estimates" or "anticipates" or the negative of these words and phrases or similar words or phrases that are predictions of or indicate future events or trends and that do not relate solely to historical matters. The Company has based forward-looking statements on management's current expectations and assumptions and not on historical facts. Examples of these statements include, but are not limited to, the Company's expectations regarding its renewable electricity capabilities and access, including in connection with the Escape Solar and Storage Project. Forward-looking statements depend on assumptions, data or methods that may be incorrect or imprecise, and the Company may not be able to realize them. The Company does not guarantee that its renewable electricity capabilities, access, milestones or other events described herein will happen as described (or that they will happen at all). These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Among the important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in such forward-looking statements include risks related to the economic and market conditions in the markets in which the Company operates and competition with other destination travel locations throughout the United States and the world, the design, timing and costs of conversion or expansion projects, risks relating to domestic and international operations, permits, licenses, financings, approvals and other contingencies in connection with growth in new or existing jurisdictions and additional risks and uncertainties described in the Company's Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and Form 8-K reports (including all amendments to those reports). In providing forward-looking statements, the Company is not undertaking any duty or obligation to update these statements publicly as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law. If the Company updates one or more forward-looking statements, no inference should be drawn that it will make additional updates with respect to those other forward-looking statements.
