LAS VEGAS (October 9, 2026) – Today, Canadian and RIAA Diamond-certified, and GRAMMY® Award-nominated rock legends Nickelback announce the 2027 *Everything Under The Sun Tour, a massive global arena run celebrating the band's highly anticipated eleventh studio album, Everything Under The Sun, out October 30 via Virgin Music Group. Following the momentum of 2022's Get Rollin' and its record-setting world tour, Nickelback will bring their signature arena-sized live show to T-Mobile Arena Friday, April 16, 2027, with Don Broco joining as direct support and special guests.

The announcement arrives as Nickelback continue to unveil the emotional and sonic breadth of Everything Under The Sun. The band's explosive single "Rattle The Cage" (feat. John 5) is currently No. 1 at Active Rock radio in the U.S., marking another chart-topping moment for a band whose catalog has defined rock radio for more than two decades. The track introduced Everything Under The Sun with blistering guitars, pounding riffs and arena-sized energy, while subsequent releases "Leave Me Behind" and "Make Me Love You" have revealed a more vulnerable and emotionally expansive side of the record.

Pre-sales will run throughout the week ahead of the general on sale starting Friday, Oct. 16 at 10 a.m. PT at axs.com.

The tour will offer a variety of VIP packages and experiences for fans to take their concert experience to the next level. Packages vary but include premium tickets, an invitation to the pre-show VIP Lounge, exclusive VIP merch, dedicated VIP message from Nickelback and more. VIP package contents vary based on the offer selected. For more information, visit vipnation.com.

Joining Nickelback as direct support will be Don Broco, the English four-piece known for a boundary-pushing sound that blends elements of metal, post-hardcore and electronica. The band has built a reputation for an electrifying live show, selling out major UK venues including Wembley Arena and Alexandra Palace and performing at festivals including Download and Reading & Leeds.

The two bands have already connected creatively, with Nickelback collaborating with Don Broco on "Nightmare Tripping," the title track from the band's latest Fearless Records album. The collaboration grew from a mutual appreciation between the artists, making the Everything Under The Sun Tour the next chapter in that relationship.

The tour follows a remarkable period for Nickelback. The band's Get Rollin' World Tour became the fastest-selling and highest-attended tour of their career, while the Netflix documentary Hate to Love: Nickelback became a global sensation, spending weeks in the platform's Global Top 10 and offering fans an unprecedented look inside the band's journey.

With nearly 65 million albums sold worldwide, billions of streams across digital platforms and more than 50 million monthly listeners, Nickelback remain one of the most streamed and commercially successful rock bands in the world. Their music continues to connect across generations, while their live shows have cemented their reputation as an arena force with a catalog built for massive rooms and massive moments.
