Four Sixes Ranch Steakhouse at MGM Grand Seeks Top Talent at Two-Day Hiring Event November 2-3

Hospitality Professionals Invited to Apply for Front-and Back-of-House Opportunities Ahead of One of the City's Most Anticipated Restaurant Openings

LAS VEGAS, NV (October 27, 2026) – Four Sixes Ranch Steakhouse, the Texas-inspired dining concept from Yellowstone creator Taylor Sheridan, will host a two-day open hiring event on Monday, Nov. 2, and Tuesday, Nov. 3, as it prepares to assemble its opening team ahead of its debut at MGM Grand Hotel & Casino in early 2027.

The immersive restaurant brings the heritage of West Texas' Four Sixes Ranch directly to the Las Vegas Strip. The culinary program will reflect the approach of an elite boutique steakhouse, combining time-honored ranch recipes with prime-grade beef, signature cuts sourced directly from Four Sixes Ranch and bold flavors rooted in authentic Texas cuisine. An adventurous beverage program will complement the menu with specialty craft cocktails, a curated wine list, and rare spirits.

The hiring event offers hospitality professionals the opportunity to join the team behind one of the Strip's most anticipated new dining destinations. Openings are available across front- and back-of-house roles, including servers, bus runners, hosts, sommeliers, bartenders, apprentice bartenders, cooks, and master cooks. Interested candidates are encouraged to apply in advance at MGM Resorts Career site, though walk-in applicants will also be accepted.

Hiring Event Details:

- Dates: Monday, Nov. 2 & Tuesday, Nov. 3, 2026
- Time: 9:30 AM – 3:00 PM (both days)
- Location: District Commons at MGM Grand (located in the former Nellie's restaurant space)
- Positions Available: Servers, Bus Runners, Hosts, Sommeliers, Bartenders, Apprentice Bartenders, Cooks, and Master Cooks

Candidates should bring a current resume and be prepared for on-site interviews.
