Worldly Wine – The globally inspired collection spans many regions of the world, highlighting an impressive number of vintages from the United States and Italy. The list features nearly one dozen wines from Wolfgang Puck’s private label, a collection of food-friendly wines that celebrate the spirit of food and life for which the chef is known.

DESIGNER:

Design and collaboration by Gelila Puck and Italian architects Massimiliano Locatelli and Annamaria Scevola of CLS Architetti

DÉCOR:

Inspired by Spago’s original flagship location in Beverly Hills, the venue boasts a sleek look and feel. In the main dining room, beautiful floor-to-ceiling floating glass windows surround the space, imparting picturesque views of Bellagio’s famed lake. Two exquisite chandeliers highlight the room’s modern art pieces, while bold accents featuring rich hues of black iron, velvet walnut and polished grey express a contemporary aesthetic.
